

MACS TeleECHO™ Clinic

Providers in a Primary Care Setting

Join our virtual learning community for continuous case-based discussions and didactic presentations linking expert addiction medicine specialists with primary care teams

For more information and to register: www.marylandmacs.org/ECHO

Who Should Participate?

- Physicians, advanced practice nurses, and physician assistants
- Pharmacists
- Counselors and other staff involved in patient substance use care

Benefits

- Access to team of addiction specialists and peers
- Increase personal and practice capacity for high-quality addiction treatment and patient care
- Acquire new skills, competencies, best practices in SUD care
- Continuing education credit (CME/CEU)

2022 Spring Cycle Primary Care Curriculum

March 16	Making Sense of Drug Tests Devang Gandhi, MD
April 20	Managing pain in the patient with SUD Michael Fingerhood, MD
May 18	Using the right words: appropriate language in relation to substance use Bethany DiPaula, PharmD
June 15	Managing the pregnant patient with OUD Christopher Welsh, MD
July 20	Management of OUD: Role of Opioid Antagonists Devang Gandhi, MD

MACS
Maryland Addiction Consultation Service

